NEEDED DOCTOR WHEN SHE QUIT

North Christian Lothario
Gets into Very Serious Trouble

QUITE A BIG SENSATION

What Happened to a Man
Who Violated the Sixth Commandment.

North Christian has for several weeks been reveling in a social sensation of the first water. A well known and prominent citizen rode by a country store and calling out another well-known citizen made to him a proposition involving the virtue of his wife. The man then rode away, after his proposition had been indignantly rejected. He returned the same way later in the day and found the injured husband and two friends waiting for him with shot-guns. They made him dismount and the wife appeared from around a convenient corner armed with a hickory withe and proceeded to lay a blow after blow until her strength was exhausted. When she finally ceased, the battered Lothario was in a very much battered condition. As soon as he was able to make the trip, he came to town and consulted a lawyer in regard to a damage suit. The lawyer, who has the reputation of being able to diagnose a case at a glance, said to him: "You do not need a lawyer. What you need is a doctor."

APRIL BRIDES.

In the Spring Fancy Turns to Thoughts of Love.

Cupid's Conquests are Being Ratified at Hymen's
Altar

Mr. James A. McKenzie of Oak Grove, and Miss Mary Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Willis, of Bowling Green, were married yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. It was a brilliant affair, solemnized at the Methodist Church in Bowling Green. The bride and groom arrived last night at their future home, at the McKenzieland in this county where the distinguished father and grand father, of the talented groom lived and died.

Mr. McKenzie is the only son of "Quinine Jim" McKenzie, Congressman, Minister and orator. He has recently been practicing law at Seattle, Wash., but has returned to his ancestral home since his father's death. His bride is a most charming Bowling Green belle and beauty.

Holcomb-Jones.

Walter Holcomb, of Nashville, a former associate of Rev. Sam P. Jones, and Miss Julia Baxter Jones, daughter of the famous evangelist, were married last night at the home of the bride's mother, in Cartersville, Ga. The bride is the youngest daughter of the family. Mr. Holcomb is well known in the southern evangelistic field, where he has been very successful. They will reside in Nashville.

Lander-Adcock.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Adcock, of Campbellsville, Ky., have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Maud, to Mr. Hugh J. Lander, of this county, the wedding to take place Tuesday, April 23, at the home of the bride.

Mr. Lander is a son of Mr. J. W. Lander, of Church Hill. He was formerly engaged in the mercantile business at Campbellsville, but will open a store at Newstead next month.

FISCAL COURT VOTES BIG BOND ISSUE FOR PIKES.

Will Expend $100,000 for Improvements of the County Roads.

THE LaFAYETTE PEOPLE ARE PLEASED.

The Action of the Court Was Unanimous
After a Full Discussion By the Citizens.

The Fiscal Court of Christian county has risen to the emergency of the hour and authorized a bond issue of $100,000, as same may be needed, to improve the public roads of Christian county, under the law of 1901, approved by a vote of the people. This great public work will be accomplished without increase of taxation. The bonds will draw a low rate of interest and the interest can be paid out of the sum saved in repairs that have to be made every year.

In 1901 the various turnpikes of the county, having a mileage of 75 or 80 miles, were bought by the county and all made free. Since that time thirty miles of new road have been built. It is now proposed to build about 60 miles more, which will give the county about 170 miles of free turnpikes. The new roads will be constructed first on roads where the people are willing to bear a portion of the expense. LaFayette has come forward with the first big offer of $9,000 for 15 miles of pike from Beverly to LaFayette. Of this amount LaFayette's wide awake citizens donated $6,000 and Hopkinsville business men gave $3,000, although the pike begins six miles from Hopkinsville.

DEAD AT 58.

Mrs. Robt. Miller a Victim of Consumption.

Mrs. Robt. Miller passed away last Sunday, leaving her husband and five children to mourn her departure. She was in her fifty-eighth year and during the greater part of her life was a member of the Methodist church. That baffler of medical skill, consumption, had been undermining her constitution for nearly ten years. Dr. A. P. Lyon conducted funeral services at Hill's chapel Monday and the remains were laid to rest in Riverside cemetery.

Farm For Sale.

166 acres of well watered and timbered land, 2 miles from the business center of Hopkinsville, ideal location for truck farming, dairy, poultry or small fruits; good limestone land, on the best pike leading out of the city south. Land will produce anything grown in this climate. If you are interested, call on Miller Clark, Agent.

Farmers and Breeders Take Notice!

There will be an Auction Sale of pure bred Poland-China bred sows at Murphy's stable, 16th and Main streets, Louisville, Ky., Saturday, April 27th, beginning at 12:30 p. m. These are a fine lot of sows, bred for early litters to a champion boar, and from the great Glen-Meadows herd, Shepherdsville, Ky. There will be money in attending this sale. Free entertainment at Fifth Avenue Hotel. Write now for catalogue, to either of the undersigned:

Glen-Meadows Stock Farm,
Shepherdsville, Ky.
Farmers Home Journal,
Louisville, Ky.
Auctioneers—Col. Tom Vinnebeck,
Hope, Ind., Col. H. L. Iglehart,
Morganfield, Ky.

There will be similar offers from other neighborhoods, the court expecting the people to donate as much as one-third of the cost of the roads.

The court went at the question in an intelligent and careful manner. The meeting was an adjourned session for hearing from the people themselves and many of the leading citizens and heaviest tax-payers of the county were present and all advised the issuance of the bonds while the county is in a position to construct permanent roads at two-thirds of their cost. Among the speakers before the court were Dr. J. D. Clardy, Messrs. E. D. Jones, R. J. Carothers, R. S. Wootton, J. W. Hammack, Jno. W. Ford, Carrier Allen, W. R. Howell and various others, all of whom strongly urged action. Among the Hopkinsville citizens who spoke were M. C. Forbes, W. A. Wilgus, Chas. M. Meacham and others.

County Attorney Jno. C. Duffy then appeared and strongly advised the issue of bonds for 30 years at 5 per cent, redeemable at the option of the county.

Mr. Duffy has from the start been a strong advocate of the bond issue and he is very much gratified over the success of his plan.

BOB MONTGOMERY,

The Electrician Buys the Theatatorium Show.

Mr. George E. Shelton has sold the Theatatorium picture show on South Main street to Robert Montgomery, of the City Light Co., who has taken charge of it. The Thaw trial Friday and Saturday was a great advertisement for the show. There were 3,542 tickets sold in addition to probably 1,000 or more that had been previously given out and not used. Mr. Shelton says he estimates that 5,000 people saw the pictures.

POLICE

Have Made Fine Start for a Record Breaker.

April thus far has been an unusually busy month with the police force. If "business" keeps up in proportion during the entire month a record may be made and there will be large contributions to the city treasury in the May fines. The slate yesterday morning showed that, in addition to arrests for serious offenses, that one George Waller was to be tried for gambling, and a trio, composed of Wm. Broadus, Larkin Suttin and Jessu Brame had to appear before the city court on the charge of breach of the peace. The four above named violators are negroes.

The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY—Partly cloudy and warmer Thursday.

The Pope has named seven new Cardinals, all of them in Europe.

Wisconsin Republicans are trying to nominate a Senator, with ten candidates before the caucus.

The latest earthquake is in the state of Guerrero, Mexico, and four cities and towns are reported destroyed at an estimated loss of life aggregating 500.

Owensboro will vote on prohibition Saturday and the contest is the fiercest yet waged in Kentucky, with the outcome in doubt. More than 4,000 voters have registered.

Judge Henry F. Turner, formerly the Populist leader of the Second District died in Henderson this week. He was a brother of the late Congressman Oscar Turner, and was 66 years of age.

Rear Admiral, Nebogotoff's death sentence for surrendering the Russian squadron has been commuted to ten years imprisonment and he has begun his term. He has a comfortable room in a fortress and is allowed a special diet.

The Daughters of the American Revolution are holding their annual Congress in Washington and the body is much disturbed over the loss of several hundred dollars of its funds, caused by ill-advised speculation in Chicago and Alton railroad stock, by Mrs. Donald McLean, the President General.

Mr. Dalton's Will.

The will of the late Patrick Dalton was probated yesterday. He left $200 to be used and applied to build a new Catholic church here. To his nephew, Thomas Lewis, of the city of Leeds, Yorkshire, England, he bequeathed two-thirds the remainder of his estate, and one-third goes to Alice Lewis, his niece, of England. The property is to be sold by Rev. Father Welsh, executor, and the proceeds to go to Rev. P. Vermier, of England, to be kept in trust for above heirs. The will was dated Jan. 30, 1907, and was witnessed by T. E. Lawson and G. W. Mitchell.

V. P. S. G. E.

Everybody is invited to attend the Christian Endeavor rally at the Christian church next Saturday night. The local Endeavorers are arranging, and other young people's societies are lending their aid to make the meeting a notable one in the history of the local union. The audience room will be beautifully decorated with bunting, endeavor banners in purple, palms and other potted plants and floral designs. The musical program will be fine. It will consist of vocal solos, violin solos with flute obligato, and the choirs of the Methodist and First Presbyterian churches, and others will also lend their assistance in making the musical feature of the evening well worth going to hear.

Mr. Homer Carpenter, Field Secretary of the State C. E. Union, will be the speaker of the evening. From what we have heard of him he is quite an entertaining speaker and all who have an interest in the development of young people for Christian work should not fail to hear him. Sunday morning, accompanied by some of our people, he will go to Eddyville and hold a meeting in the chapel of the State prison for the men behind the bars. Miss Lucy Starling is superintendent of prison work in Kentucky and will attend the State meeting at Paris next month. She is doing a grand work, and in order to be able to make her report at Paris as good, and even better than has been made for years, has induced Mr. Carpenter to visit the local societies and arouse enthusiasm in the cause before the Paris meeting. Let everybody interested in the betterment of unfortunate humanity turn out next Saturday night and encourage those who are laboring so earnestly for a good cause.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

"The Old World and its Ways."

Col. William Jennings Bryan announces a new book of travel entitled, "The Old World and its Ways," which recounts his recent tour around the world and his journeys through Europe. It is profusely and elegantly illustrated with 240 artistic engravings representing men and things seen in the various countries of the earth during that noted journey. The engravings are made from photographs taken by him or his party specially for this publication. It is the monumental literary work of his life, and it is published under his special personal supervision. He has by special contract with his publishers, made the retail prices low down with the view of putting it within the easy reach of every reader of books and every man or woman who thinks.

The book gives his experiences—what he saw and did—whom he met and his impressions and conclusions. He made a profound study of men and things as he saw them in his noted journey around the world. He gives governmental, educational, religious and other conditions, from the standpoint of a student and one profoundly interested in the people of the earth, wherever distributed.

While Col. Bryan traveled as a private citizen he went with the prestige of having made two memorable contests for the Presidency of the United States, and he was everywhere recognized and entertained as a great representative American, having a leading part in the direction of American affairs. He was given opportunity for observation and for ascertaining facts and conditions never before accorded to any one traveling in private capacity.

If one wants to see the world, and the people who are at the head of affairs in all countries, as well as the masses, he has in his book an opportunity of seeing them through the eyes of Col. William Jennings Bryan. It is sold by subscription, and The Thompson Publishing Company of St. Louis, Mo., are the fortunate publishers. They offer an opportunity for solicitors in another column of this issue.

LARGE WAGON

For Acme Milling Co. Will Soon Be Completed.

Probably the largest wagon that has ever been used here is being built by West & Lee for the Acme Milling Co., and will be ready for use in about three weeks.

The bed of the heavy vehicle looks to be about half the size of a box-car. It is guaranteed to haul 7,000 pounds without extra strain and three horses, abreast, will be used. The wagon is built from the ground up by West & Lee and will stand many years of constant use. It will be handsomely painted and be a good traveling advertisement for both the builders and the Acme Mills.

Large Hail Stones.

An unusually heavy storm of rain and wind struck the city Tuesday night about 6:45, with heavy thunder and lightning accompaniment. During the storm there was a fall of hail. The stones were larger than cherry seeds. The county roads were beginning to get in pretty fair condition, but the rain put the very bad places in the same condition that prevailed during the latter part of winter.

Palestine, the Land of Holy Memories.

LETTER No. 6.
MILLARD A. JENKINS

Leaving Alexandria, Egypt, March 25th, 1907.—What student of the Bible has not longed to visit Palestine, the land where lived our Saviour, the land that gave us our Bible, the land to which our Lord will surely come again?

We were interested in all the places we visited, but every interest for us centered in Palestine. It was with a thrill of enthusiasm when at an early hour we awoke to find ourselves in full view of Mt. Carmel, and the scene of Paul's conversion, where we were to begin our pilgrimage through the Holy Land.

Haifa is situated at the foot of Carmel on the sea not far from Acre, a city once the home of the crusaders, and the scene of one of Napoleon's defeats. Napoleon, after he had abandoned the siege of Acre, said: "Had I captured that city, I would have made myself master of the world." How glad we are didn't capture it.

Haifa is the great soap factory town of Palestine, and judging from the size of the factories and the looks of the people, they make more soap and use the least of it of any place of its size in the world.

Here we took the cars for Damascus, the scene of Paul's conversion, and the oldest city in the world. We decided before we reached our destination that we had gotten aboard the slow train through Arkansas, as we did not arrive at Damascus till 2 a. m. It had been raining, and we found the city was prepared to dampen our enthusiasm a bit. But next day the sun came out, and soon all was well.

Mohammed was said to have stopped on the hill, and to have remarked, as he turned away, refusing to enter its gates, "If I enter this paradise, I will be loath to enter the paradise above." I think it must have been raining, and Mohammed was running from mud.

There is much to interest one in Damascus, but the one thing that makes it interesting to the Bible student is the fact that the world's greatest preacher was converted here.

Leaving Damascus we took the train for Galilee. From the little station and the extreme end of the sea, we took boats for Tiberias where we were to spend the night. We had a delightful sail on the historic waters, whose shores are dotted with the ruins of places which were so vitally connected with the life and ministry of our Lord. The country of Gadara, Magdala, where lived Mary Magdalene, Bethsaida, Capernaum, were the Saviour's home. Here most of his Galilean ministry centers. From Tiberias we drove to Nazareth, passing the Mt. of Beatitudes, the place of the feeding of the five thousand, the battlefield where Saladin finally defeated the crusaders; Cana of Galilee, the birthplace of Jonah, and finally Nazareth. After visiting the different churches, which are supposed to mark the places where Joseph and Mary lived, the workshop of Joseph, the synagogue, and the precipice where they undertook to throw our Lord down with the intent to kill him she declared himself to be the Son of God, I climbed to the top of the mountain and saw the city, where Jesus as a boy must have often climbed, and there had a glorious view of the surrounding country. Yonder is the little Hermon with Nain nestled in its side, there Tabar, where the natives believe took place the transfiguration, towering high above all yonder to the north is Hermon, snow-capped, while to the west lies Haifa and Mt. Carmel, and to the south the plain of Esdraelon, the battle ground of Palestine from Joshua to Napoleon.

Beyond this place are the mountains of Gilboa, and the city of Jezreel. I sat and mused on the scenes of the past as the soft sunset glow threw its halo over Mt. Carmel, and filled all the valley, and touched the mountain tops with its mellow pencilings as far east as Mt. Tabor. Lying below was the little city of Nazareth.

It was the hour for evening prayer. From the minarets of the mosques the cry of the priests rang out: "God is great; there is no God but Allah; Mohammed is his prophet; come to prayers; come to salvation." Yes, in the Saviour's earthly home, where he preached and was rejected, the false prophet is worshipped and His dear name is still despised. But one day his glory shall appear, the glory as of the rising and not the setting sun.

From Nazareth we begin our horseback journey across Samaria, the ride across the plain of Esdraelon to Nain, then Shunim, then Jezreel, where we have lunch. Can it be possible that over the very ground over which we have ridden to-day, Joshua, and Saul, and Barak, and Gideon, and Jehu, and Ahab, and Saladin, and Napoleon, and a score of others have marshaled their armies, and fought battles that have shaped to a vast extent the history of the world? I cannot describe my feelings when I came, to the little stream where Gideon's men were tested. God wants men of faith. He has the resources.

From Jezreel we made our way to Jenin, the En-Gomim of the Bible, and supposed to be the place where the lepers were healed. Here we spent a pleasant night in a hotel run by a German.

By six o'clock next morning we are mounted and off for Nablus, the ancient Shechem. On the way we pass the land of Dothan, where is still pointed out the pit into which Joseph was thrown by his brethren, then came Samaria, once one of the greatest cities of the East, now a town of a few mud huts; and after a rather half-day's hard riding, over mountain trails, and but for our sure footed horses, a dangerous journey, we reach Shechem. Mt. Ebal and Mt. Gerizim tower high above the city. After visiting the Samaritan synagogue and meeting the high priest, a few of us decided to climb to the top of Mt. Gerizim, where for two or three thousand years the Samaritans have worshipped. Here every year they kill and eat the passover, as in the days of our Lord. They still worship in this mountain. There are now only about 150 of them left, but they still maintain their identity as a people. The high priest, David, son of Aaron, paid us a visit at our hotel in the evening. All were impressed with him as a man of considerable ability, and certainly of great sincerity.

Here on these two mountains the blessing and the cursing were read, while the children of Israel assembled in the valley between them responded with the solemn amen.

Near here is the tomb of Joseph, the village Sychar, and Jacob's well. There can be no doubt as to the identity of this well. Here our Saviour sat and taught the way of life to the sinful woman of Sychar. As we journeyed on towards Jerusalem, we passed many places of great importance: Beth, Bethoth, Bethel and Mizpah. Almost every hill and valley is mentioned in the books of Joshua and Judges.

The trip to Jericho, the Dead Sea and the Jordan was one of the most enjoyable we had. There were but eight of us. We had for our courier Mr. Moses Forajollah. Quite an honor to have Moses as our guide. Abraham had the day before conducted a party to Jericho. He it was who later showed some of the interesting sights of Jerusalem. For a long time I have read of these famous men. I had never before seen them in the flesh.

At the scene of the Good Samaritan we held a service in the open air. On the mountain side we took our seats, and as they did in the Master's time, I sat on the ground in front of the group and preached the word. That evening, after we had paid a visit to the Dead Sea and the river Jordan, and the fountain whose bitter waters were sweetened by Elisha, we assembled at our hotel, the Galgal, and there had another simple, but spiritually helpful service.

On our way back next day, Bethany was visited, the little town where Jesus loved so much to go.

In Jerusalem we spent several days. I could not begin to tell of the places of interest there in one letter. I shall have to wait until I have returned to tell of its sacred places. The floor of the temple, the pool of Bethesda, and of Siloam, the Mt. of Olives, the valley of Jehoshaphat or the Kidron valley, as it is called in the New Testament, Mt. Calvary, and the garden tomb. All these places we visited, as well as many others we cannot mention for want of time and space.

JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT Suffered Four Months From the After-Effects of the Grip--Relieved By Pe-ru-na.

The grip more than any other disease in the world leaves the system in a run-down, nervous, bloodless condition. Peru-na has become famous in relieving the deplorable condition which the grip produces.

HON. W. H. PARSONS.
925 H. ST., N.W.,
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Catarth Victims Susceptible.

People who have had catarth of the head, throat, nose or lungs are much more liable to catch the grip than other people.

The reason for this is that the mucous membranes of the head, nose, throat or lungs are injured by the catarth and the germs which cause the grip find easy entrance into the system.

It is a well established fact that perfectly sound mucous membranes constitute a barrier to the entrance of disease germs.

The best precaution any one can have against the grip is to be perfectly free from catarth.

As a preventive of grip, Peru-na has done a great deal of good in the world by its beneficial effect upon the mucous membranes.

Catarth has another unwelcome influence to be noticed in connection with the grip.

Victims of catarth who have had the grip find themselves after the acute stages have passed, in very weakened and deplorable conditions.

After-Effects of Grip.

The whole nervous system is impaired; the digestive organs deranged; the circulation of the blood feeble and irregular. All these symptoms are produced, more or less, by the grip, and especially in people who have had catarth previous to the grip.

Enough to melt the heart of a stone to go to the bit of the old temple wall yet remaining and see the Jews come to wail over the condition of their land and city. Refusing the light, they seek on in the darkness for the light. Riding down through the valley of Jehoshaphat and up Mt. of Olives on my donkey, I read from the prophets how that Jesus Christ will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, and that in the valley of Jehoshaphat He will assemble all nations to judgment, I could but cry out in my heart.

Lord Jesus come, come quickly! The more I travel through the different countries of the world, the more I see that the world needs but one thing—that is Christ Jesus, and the religion He purchased with His blood. May all who name His name, so live as to hasten the coming of His kingdom.

Leaving Jerusalem, we came by rail to Joppa, where Peter, while asleep on the house-top of Simon the Tanner, saw the vision that cured him of his pride, and sent him forth to preach to the Gentiles. We passed through the country made famous by Sampson's exploits against the Philistines, and where David slew the giant; down through the valley of Sharon, and at Joppa took ship for Alexandria, where we began our journey up the Nile for Cairo and the pyramids, about which I will make some mention in my next.

Sent to Asylum.

That quiet, harmless old man, James E. Center, who for six or eight years, has walked the streets asking for any kind of work that might prevent him from asking alms, is at the place where he should have long been. Frail of body and none too strong mentally, he has to a great extent subverted upon those who pitied him in his lone condition and inability to do any work except mow a lawn or work a garden. Very properly the old man was adjudged of unsound mind and sent to the asylum this week, where the great question of "What shall I eat, or where shall I be clothed, or where will I eat," will no longer trouble the poor old man. He is at about 70 years of age.

POKER'S VICTIM

Still Lives and Will Recover From Blow.

Frank Rives, the negro boy hit with a poker by Lemi Moore a few nights ago, was reported to be dead yesterday, but the report proved to be untrue. Rives is getting better and is out of danger. Moore is in the workhouse on another charge. He was given a parole the night he had the trouble with Rives.

Rives was in a precarious condition Sunday and appeared to grow worse throughout the day. Tuesday his physician had but little hope of his recovery. After hearing of the critical condition of his victim Sunday, Moore left the city and made his way to Clarksville, Chief of Police Roper had information as to Moore's being in Clarksville and sent Officer Miller over after him Tuesday. Officer Miller made a double arrest while over there, bringing back with him a negro, George Waller, who was one of a squad of negroes who had been guilty of crap shooting, but managed to evade the police. Moore was placed in jail as soon as Officer Miller arrived here. He and the other prisoner were brought here, handcuffed together. Moore will be kept in close custody until the final outcome of his attack on Rives is known beyond doubt.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of to-day: although a citizen of Colley, Earl Shamburg has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." A cordial invitation to attend is extended to every manufacturer and producer who happens to be in the city on that day and to everyone who will make the trip especially for the occasion. By calling on Mr. Hayden Dodd, a spread will be laid for all visitors and a hearty welcome extended. The association wishes to get acquainted with all interested in the south. The term producer includes lumber men, bankers, cattle men, farmers and every citizen, who, by his thrift, adds to the country's storehouse and to his own surplus every year.

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Troubles May Be Sapping Your Life Away.

Hopkinsville People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man, or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes irritable, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Hopkinsville testimony to prove it.

R. C. Moorefield, Sr., real estate dealer and associated with the Christian County Title Co., residing at 222 W. 17th St., Hopkinsville, says: "For several years the condition of my back and of the kidney secretions furnished ample evidence that I was suffering from kidney disorders. The aching in my back would come on by spells often, so severe that it was painful for me to stoop, to straighten up or to attempt any sudden movement. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised locally, and thinking that they might help me, got a box at Thomas & Trahern's drug store. I had used them only a few days when I noticed a marked improvement in my condition, and I continued their use. They did me more good than any medicine I had ever used and that is putting it mildly. You may publish my statement any time and I will do all I can to let the value of Doan's Kidney Pills be known."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doans and take no other.

GAVE HIM YIT FOR TAT

Bit of Conversation Worth of Recording Here at an English Railway Station.

Young Stevens was on his way north to spend the week end with his parents and fell in a particularly jovial mood, says Tit-Bits.

The train in which he was traveling stopped at a small village and as a farmer, who was sauntering up and down the platform, came opposite Stevens' compartment, he was asked by that youth if he knew that the duke of Devonshire was in the train.

Immediately the man showed great interest and said: "Not in he?"

"I think he is not," answered Stevens. "I only asked if you knew that he was."

The farmer said nothing but continued his walk on the platform. As he came opposite the window again he remarked that their town had been experiencing some excitement.

"What's the matter?" Stevens asked.

"The authorities wouldn't let some folks bury a woman," replied the farmer.

"What was the reason for refusing?"

"She wasn't dead," was the laconic reply.

And then he strolled away, leaving young Stevens biting his lip.

ALL WANT MORE.

"I want more," cries capital in enjoyment of the highest level of interest upon money invested in many years.

"I want more," cries the merchant as he pockets the highest prices for commodities.

"I want more," cries the housewife to her husband as she compares her allowance with the advancing costs of living.

"More," "more," everywhere the demand is for "more." Railroads want more money for extensions and equipment. Investors want more dividends, wage earners more wages, society more to spend on luxuries that are fast becoming necessities, colleges more endowments, and the government more appropriations.

Where is "more" coming from?—Wall Street Journal.

TO PREVENT POTATO ROT.

The German government and the people who are interested in agriculture have been making exhaustive study and experiment in order to find prevention or cure of the potato rot, which has been serious and increasing for several years.

As to the result of investigation and experience, the following has been published by newspapers throughout the nation:

"The rotting is caused by the potato fungus. This fungus, if present on some potatoes in the collar, spreads to other potatoes and causes rot. A solution of one pound of chloride of lime dissolved in 25 gallons of water is used for washing the potatoes by means of a broom. They are then spread out to dry. Through this procedure the spores of the fungus are killed."

NOT LIKE KANSAS.

You can't lose Kansas at any turn of the road. Her people are as quick with their wits in the big marts of civilization as they are with their scythes and more dangerous blades on their native heath.

Senator Plum of Kansas got away with a Gothaite some years ago at a Waldorf-Astoria dinner given to a Kansas delegation by philanthropists with axes to grind.

The fish course presented itself in the form of a mammoth salmon couchant and rampant amid its garniture.

"You don't have fish like that in Kansas, do you, senator?" asked the New Yorker.

"No," drawled the westerner. "We don't need 'em. The Lord knows where to send brain food." Philadelphia Record.

NO WONDER.

"That girl was intoxicatingly beautiful last night."

"Humph! It was her dress. She wore champagne silk under a drapery of foamy lace."

THE REAL THING.

"How did you enjoy the opera?"

THE SECRET OUT.

Without admission, Mrs. H. Harrison, of 112 West at Street, Sioux City, Iowa, writes us as follows:

"I suffered for more than seven years with a very complicated form of female trouble accompanied with nervous prostration, and after visiting with six physicians all bearing excellent reputations, was informed that unless an operation was performed I would be an invalid for life. Hearing of the wonderful cures effected by Dr. R. V. Pierce's medicine, and believing that there must be a cure for almost every ailment, I determined to make one more effort. I wrote to Dr. Pierce and I will never forget his kindly advice, telling me to follow his instructions faithfully and not to submit to an operation. I commenced to improve after his weaker treatment, and in five months my improvement was so noticeable to friends that they began to inquire about my method of treatment. I was pleased to tell them of the wonderful means of cure that I had most fortunately found, and so many ladies quoted to me for information regarding Dr. Pierce's medicine, and as to my health, I felt in a day bound to give them the facts. The large number of positive cures effected by Dr. Pierce's medicine, used by my recommendation, seemed, to me, a full list of all the ingredients entering into the compound. Both are made entirely from native roots, of rare medicinal value. The ingredients of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' being Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Mandrake root and Bloodroot. The 'Favorite Prescription' is prepared in a similar manner, from Blue Cohosh root, Lady's Slipper root, Unicorn root, Golden Seal root and Rattleweed root, these ingredients being macerated for a long time at a rather high temperature in a menstruum composed of chemically pure glycerine, or grape sugar."

Dr. Pierce's Good temper is largely a matter of healthy activity of the bowels. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are safe, sure and speedy, and once taken do not have to be taken again. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two mild cathartics. They never hurt the parties and know the facts."

BREWERY 332 YEARS OLD

Long-Established Business is to Be Given Up, However, Because Bride Wills It.

Boroughloch brewery, in Buccleuch street, Edinburgh, is about to be closed, and for a reason which is somewhat interesting.

The proprietor—Mr. Andrew Melvin—is, it is reported, about to get married to a wealthy American lady, who is a member of the Salvation Army, and it is at her request that the business is being given up.

It will probably be hailed as one of the greatest triumphs of the army in Scotland that they have been able to effect the stoppage of a drink manufactory. The brewery is a small one. It is, however, the oldest of all the Edinburgh breweries, having been started in 1575—332 years ago. The last brew was made on Friday last.

Meantime the place is being kept open for the sale of the beer in stock, of which there is a large quantity.

The promises of Boroughloch are being offered to let, a condition of lease being that they are not to be used as a brewery. The incident is the subject of a good deal of comment in the south side of Edinburgh.

GOOD EXCUSE.

Storekeeper—By heck, Hiram, you put your shoes up against the red-hot stove while you were asleep and now you have burned all the soles off. Hiram—Jakes alive, Jason! Couldn't you smell the burning leather? Storekeeper—No, you see a city drummer was in here smoking one of those furrin cigarettes.

MISSIONARIES' MISTAKES.

Sir Ernest Satow, minister at Peking, speaking on the subject of Christian missions and their political effects, said that missionary work in China had received additional interest lately because of the apparent awakening of Chinese desire for education on the European plan.

He was not aware, however, that there was any great craving for the spiritual side of European civilization. The Chinese saw that Europeans had overcome them by reason of their superior knowledge of physical science. They would like to build ironroads and supply themselves with railways, electric lights and things of that sort which might help their material advancement, and that was all.

A COLD DAY.

We have a few subscribers who put us in mind of Tom Jones when the Swede collector said had promised to pay his account in January. As the story was told, the Swede returned from an unsuccessful trip and told the boss that "Yim Yohnson say he vill pay when him sell his hogs. Yim Sniff he vill pay when he sell him wheat, and Tom Yohnes say he vill pay in January."

"Well," said the boss, "that is the first time Tom ever set a time to pay. Did he really say he would pay in January?"

"Vell, say tank so," said the Swede. "He say it been a cold day when you got dat money. I tank dat been in January."—Hope Dispatch.

BEFORE AND AFTER.

Mass illustrating the Change Brought About by the London County Council Election.

AS IT WAS.

In this map of London the dead black indicates that part of London having a "moderate" or anti-municipal ownership representation in the county council before the recent election, the white that part having "Progressive" representation, which has governed the world's metropolis for eighteen years, and which has bankrupted it by municipally operated street cars and other enterprises, and the shaded portion indicates divided representation.

AS IT IS.

In this map, also, black indicates "moderate," white "Progressive" and shading divided representation in the council. The contrast in the two maps is remarkable. They show much more graphically than words or figures could how complete has been the change in London's sentiment. The maps were copied from the London Daily Graphic.

IT WOULD END THE UNIONS.

Would Strikes Be Treasonable Under Public Ownership?

About two-thirds of the people clamoring for government ownership of railroad lines, telegraph and express companies are either members of labor organizations or closely identified or in sympathy with their cause. Do those men know that government ownership means the end of labor organizations? The government recognizes no interference or disturbance of its plans and arrangements. It has its multiplicity of red tape, and the man in its employ must work to the letter and have nothing to say. When a man doesn't like a government job, he never hears of any riotous demonstrations when he gets separated from it. He simply takes his medicine and the few faces he makes over it have little effect.

When the government manages and controls its system, it tells its employees what to do and when to do it, and it tells them what it pays, and there are no presents. No medals go to government employees.

You never heard of a strike in the army, navy or postoffice department, yet the government is the poorest paymaster in the world. It pays less wages and less frequently than any other great corporation. It puts when it pleases and what it pleases, and your conduct and sayings are subject to investigation upon slight provocation.

If there is any class of men who should fight desperately and to the last ditch in opposition to government or municipal ownership, it is the great labor organizations of the country. Editorial in Burlington (Ia.) Gazette.

A Unique Recommendation.

The question of purchasing the water-works having arisen in Salem, O., a conference meeting of committees appointed by the Business Men's association and the Manufacturers' association and the ordinance committee of the council was held, at which the president of the board of public service was also present. After voting against municipal ownership, with but a single dissenting vote, the following remarkable resolution was unanimously passed:

Whereas, it is apparent to this meeting that the water company has not during the term of its franchise just passed been able to pay to its stockholders a reasonable return on their investment;

Whereas, it is the sense of this meeting that they are entitled to same; therefore be it

Resolved, That we hereby recommend to the city grant such reasonable increase in rates in the new franchise as will give the company a net profit of 6 per cent on its present capital stock.

Three Setbacks in Michigan.

Municipal ownership got a setback in three villages in Michigan in Monday's election. Bellevue voted against electric light and waterworks plant, Davison voted down a proposition to bond for an electric light plant, and Potterville voted against a municipal bakery. —Michigan Investor.

Peru's Impaired Electric Plant.

The city council of Peru, Ind., is considering using a contract for current with a private company in order to avoid spending $15,000 on the city lighting plant, which its impaired condition makes necessary if it is to be kept in service.

Experts at Cooking Accounts.

If there is anything in the taxpayers and advocates of public ownership have shown themselves expert, it is in the art of keeping books so as to show that public ownership pays even when it does not.—New York Evening Sun.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

KRESO

Combination of Coal-Tar Derivatives.
(NON-CARBOLIC.)

A STANDARDIZED DISINFECTANT, ANTISEPTIC
CLEANSER, DEODORIZER AND PURIFIER

Kreoso possesses advantages which make it better and safer than any other material for household disinfecting, and it is preferable to carbolic acid, because it does not burn, so either of lime, copper, etc., because

First, it is safe. In the dilution recommended it is practically non-poisonous, and can therefore be used freely, and is safe to have around. It is not caustic or irritating; it does not attack metals, and therefore does not destroy plumbing; it does not permanently stain washable fabrics.

Second, it is effective. Our laboratory tests require that in a 1% solution it must destroy the most resistant disease-germ (the green pus germ) in one minute. It thus disinfects, cleanses and purifies. It destroys foul odors, not by obliterating odoriferous matter, but by destroying the cause of the odor.

Third, it is standardized; always the same. You can depend upon it.

Kreoso is particularly valuable in preventing an outbreak of contagious diseases, by destroying infection, cleansing, purifying and promoting sanitation. It is the ideal disinfectant for HOSPITALS, WARD WAY STATIONS, PUBLIC BUILDINGS, SCHOOL ROOMS, BATH-ROOMS, WATER CLOSETS, URINALS, KITCHEN SINKS, STORE ROOMS, OUT-DOOR, GARBAGE BOXES, CESSPOOLS, STABLES, DOG-KENNELS, CAGES, ETC.

For all general disinfecting purposes mix Kreoso with water (warm preferred) in the following proportions:

1 tablespoonful Kreoso,
1 pint water,
making approximately a 1 to 100 solution.

She was a member of the Methodist Church for half a century or more.

Funeral arrangements had not been announced yesterday further than that Dr. John W. Lewis, in the absence of Dr. Lyon, would preach the funeral sermon and that the burial would take place sometime today.

APPROPRIATE BALANCE

Action Taken After Strong
Appeal Made by Rev.

Geo. C. Abbitt.

Christian county has raised all and more than enough to pay the assessment made for the Jamestown Exposition. Of the $40,000 needed, this county was asked to contribute $541.

Some time ago the people by private subscription raised $296.50. Later the ladies raised a small sum by a musical entertainment. Rev. Geo. C. Abbitt appeared before the county court, in behalf of the county committee, and asked for $250 to complete the sum. After some discussion, the court responded to the call, thus bringing the amount up to something more than the state committee asked for.

During the electric storm Monday afternoon, lightning struck the stones on the top of a chimney of Miss Annie Trice's handsome new stone residence on the corner of Main and Twentieth streets.

Several blocks of stone were knocked off and the lightning entered the house and struck the steel ceiling of an unoccupied room, tearing a hole in it and knocking from a wooden moulding just under the place hit. The noise made was like a pistol shot. Miss Trice was lying on the bed in a rear room and escaped injury.
